Meet PROFESSOR PATRICIA SILVER, Criminal Behaviorist, Psychologist, and Avenging Spirit. A victim of violent homicide who haunts both this world and the next, she protects the innocent.

In a city where humans unwittingly share the streets with blood-drinking vampires and where rogue government agents make secret deals with families of the Undead, she begins an adventure into the eerie and horrific spectral world of LE GRYMMEUERE, also called "The Kin." Spirits of vengeance clash with the vampire underworld in a battle for dominance in a city by the sea.
